THE VAUGHT FAMILY

by

Mrs. T. H. Bowles

In a vault in the clerk's office at Christiansburg, county seat of Montgomery Co., Va., there was found in August, 1937 a package of old papers known as "Fincastle Papers" which contained the muster rolls of Revolutionary War Soldiers from Montgomery County, among which was one containing the list of Captain William Love's Company, as follows:

My father's cousin, still living, has passed on information to me she got from her grandmother, Rebecca Jane Damron Atkins, my gr-grandmother. She said the family lived within hearing distance of the battle of Shiloh during the Civil War. I found this family in McNairy Co., Tenn. in the 1860 census. I have found where some Atkins belonged to Shiloh Methodist Church a number of years before the Civil War. They were Rev. Geo. Atkins, a Paton Atkins and a J. P. Atkins. By 1850, Paton, who was a son of this Geo W. Atkins, were in Jefferson Co., Ark. I found where Paton and twin, Green D., and their father, Geo. W. Atkins, Sr. are buried in Atkins Family Cemetery in Jefferson Co., Ark., Richland township. Geo. W. was born 1782, died 1859. He could be a brother to my ancestor, William, b. 1797, d. 1841.

The E. D. L. Atkins family were in White Co., Ark. near Searcy in 1870. He died Jan. 16, 1873, but have never been able to find out where he is buried. The family moved to Texas in 1875. I would like to contact any Atkins descendants in Arkansas, particularly in the White County area.

ROCK CREEK CEMETERY, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Rock Creek Cemetery is located across from the swimming area at Camp Albert Pike and I believe, in the Ouachiat National Forest, Montgomery County. On the tourists' map it is called "Ole Indian Burying Ground". There are about 35 to 40 graves marked with sandstone rock but no names could be found on these. It is a well kept cemetery at the side of the mountain. Copied Summer, 1969, by Jo Dildy, Box 155, Nashville, Ark. 71852.

INDEX TO GOODSPEED'S FAULKNER COUNTY, ARKANSAS

by: Joe C. Shaw, Sandra Hurst and Betty Weaver

This index includes the name of every person mentioned in that portion of Goodspeed's 1889 history of Central Arkansas devoted to Faulkner County. This original work has long been out of print and is a valuable collectors' item. Copies may be consulted, however, in a number of college and public libraries in Arkansas. The names indexed in this publication include not only the family name of the Faulkner County people mentioned by Goodspeed, but, in most cases, their ancestors and children, a total of well over 800 names.

The Faulkner County Historical Society has published a reprint of this history in two sections in its quarterly, Faulkner Facts and Fiddlings; the issues of Fall, 1964 and Spring 1967, the former selling at $1.25 and the latter at $2.00. The address is Post Office Box 711, Conway, Ark., 72032. -- J. C. S.

BANKS

John Banks m. Margaret Gibson in 1846 in Tenn. They were parents of Jemima, m. 1st DeHart, M. 2nd, Wm. Peters, Louisiana; Phebe, m. Francis Marion Eaves; Armon "Bud" m. 1st, Mary E. Liner, m. 2nd, Martha Liner Parham; Sarah Ann "Sally", m. George W Liner; Lot, m. Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Burk; James S., m. Fannie Means; Amanda Melvina m. Alexander McBride; and Margaret Ellen, m. Andrew Barber. I think they were from Tenn. to Texas to Ark. In 1880 they were in Polk Co., Ark.

I am also interested in the Thomas and Edwards from No. Alabama to Ark. They were in Faulkner, White and Saline counties. There is a Brooks-VanPelt connection, and perhaps Ball and Covington. Williams from Obion Co., Tenn. to Clay Co., Ark. and Polk Co. Funderburk, Cashon, Peden and Lowe from anywhere. I will answer all letters.

Also, I have a copy of the Mid South Bible Records, which I will check free of charge for anyone sending a self-addressed stamped envelope.

BARKMAN - LATHAM

In the No. 1 issue of the Arkansas Gazette, printed at Arkansas Post in 1819, is a notice of divorcement by Susan Latham, represented by her best friend and mother, Ann Greenwalt. Need given name of Susan (Barkman-Barrickman) Latham's husband. Ann Greenwalt, maiden name unknown, first married a Barkman (Barrickman), given name unknown. Made will Sept. 7, 1821, filed Oct. 25, 1821, Probate book AA, Page 24, 25, Territory and township of Arkansas. Will names son, Jacob Barkman, to receive 300 acres of land, confirmed to his mother by the authority of the American Government, situated on the west side of the great Prarie County and Township foresaid. Also names daughters, Catharine and Mattie Greenwalt.

An 1821 issue of the Arkansas Gazette records the death of Betsy Barkman, wife of Jacob Barkman, at the home five miles from the post, leaving four small children. Did Jacob Barkman then marry Lucinda (---?)? A land entry in Dewitt shows Jacob Barkman and wife Lucinda selling land in 1829.

In 1829 Sheriffs list of Arkansas Co., Ark. is an Elisha Barkman, and in 1840 a Curtis Barkman. In 1840 Federal Census there is listed a Jacob Barkman of Arkansas Co. A Jacob Barrickman was here as early as 1811-14. Can anyone tell me any thing about this family?

BEATY - WILSON - HOLDEN

Dr. William Beaty was born in N. C., 1785. On his way to Arkansas Territory, ca 1818, he met and later married Clarinda Wilson (1801-1871) of Kentucky. They spent the rest of their lives near DeAnn in Hempstead Co., Ark. I need information about the parents, brothers and sisters of this couple. Exactly where were William and Clarinda born and buried?

I would also like to trace John Wilson Holden, b. 1814, S. C., and Geo. W. Holden, b. 1818, S. C., who were in Hempstead Co., Ark. in 1850. Who were their parents?

I am also interested in the Polk, Watkins and Wesson lines.

BROWN - HUDSON - LOWDERMILK

My gr-grandfather, John Oliver Brown, was born in Jackson, Tennessee, in 1815. His wife was Mary Anna Hudson, no further information. Our Family Bible lists another Hudson born in 1792, no further information. These families lived in Clark and Hempstead counties.

My paternal grandfather was John Elliott Lowdermilk, a Methodist Episcopal minister, and was married to my grandmother at Wallaceburg, Arkansas, close to the time of the Civil War, by a minister (or J. P.) named Daniel Magrew. Would appreciate any information.

CHANCEY - CHAUNCEY

The Chauncy family in America goes back to 1637, but the spelling has been changed through the years from Chauncy to Chauncey to Chancey. There are families living in Ozark, Ark. who were not aware that they were related but felt that they must be. Each family seemed to have stemmed from an Amos, but one line had come to Arkansas from Ga. and Ala. and the other from Tenn. I discovered that one Amos was born in 1797 in N. C. and buried in Tenn. The other was born in 1800 and was in Ga. by 1822 and was buried in Ga. Sure enough the two Amoses had the same grandfather. I would be interested to hear from anyone who is interested in working on this line.

I am also working on the Hendon line. That family was in Barry Co., Mo., just north of the Arkansas boundary from 1850 to 1900 and in McDonald Co., Mo. from 1900 to 1950. Asa Hendon and his offspring were the only ones there, but there were additonal Hendons -- from Ky., Tenn., Ga. and Ala., who came west, and probably some of them settled in Arkansas.

DENNY - DRAKE - HASH

I am trying to trace the sons of Claiborne Denny, who lived in Caswell Co., N. C. in 1790 and in Smith Co., Tenn. in 1820, and in Madison Co., Tenn. in 1830. Stanford Denny, one of three sons, came to Madison Co., Ark. before 1840. Were Burnett and Searcy Denny, who filed on land in Madison Co., also sons of Claiborne?

Jacob Drake, b. 1778, Pa., is thought to have had one daughter, Ester Elizabeth, by his first wife. Who was this wife, and where was she born and married? Their daughter was born in Tenn., m. Alvin Hash, moved to Sangamon Co., Ill. and later to Washington Co., Ark. The daughter of Alvin and Ester Hash married the son of Stanford and Martha (Robinson?) Denny. Any information on these families will be helpful.

EDENS - STOCKTON

I have reason to believe that my gr-grandmother, Edy or Edith, who later married Elliot Stockton in Barry Co., Mo. in 1844, was first married to an Elias Edens, probably in Izard Co., Ark. I have written the Izard Co. Clerk and was informed that all records were burned in 1889. The 1850 census for Barry Co., Mo. shows that the Edy Edens who married Elliot Stockton in 1844 had two male children, 13 and 10 years old, John and Jonathan Edens, both born in Ark. The 1840 census for Izard County, Ark. shows one Elias Edens, 30-40 years of age, wife 20-30, with two children, a male under 5 and a female 5-10 years old. Edy would have been 21 in 1840, according to the age given in 1850. One of her two sons by Edens would have been born during 1840, perhaps after the census enumeration. In 1840 Elias Edens was shown to reside in the "south fork township" of Izard Co. Either Elias or Edith was probably part Cherokee Indian. She is shown in 1850 as having been born in Kentucky. My problem is to determine Edy or Edith's maiden name.

GILL

The 1880 census records reflect that my gr-grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Gill, resided in Romance, Marshall Township, White County, Ark. The census record microfilm I viewed was dim, but it appeared that his wife's name was S. Jane or F. Jane. An aunt thinks her name was Fannie. Mr. Gill was noted as being born in Tenn. and his wife in Ala. My grandfather, John Marion Gill, and his older sister, Willie Gill, were born in Romance, Ark., he in Jan., 1883, she in Feb., 1880. The family moved to Texas ca 1890-1895. Would like any records on this family's history, the names of their parents and place of birth.

MARTIN - SHORT - ALSOBROOK - VESTAL - WIMBERLY - PATTILL

I desire to exchange information on the descendants of Revolutionary Soldier Robert Martin, son of John and Arabella Morgan Martin. Robert was born on the Eastern Shore of Maryland on Sept. 6, 1754, died ca 1832 in Georgia, married in Monroe Co., Ga., Nov. 3, 1783 to Eleanor Jones, who was born in 1763. Their children: Seaborn J., b. ca 1805 (my gr-gr-grandfather); Eleanor, b. 1806, m. Jesse Short in Morgan Co., Ga. in 1822; Robert; Nathan; John; Ailsa D., b. 1806, m. Lewis Alsobrook in Jones Co., Ga. (they had a son, Thomas, living at Rosston, Ark. 1892); Sarah; Mary; Nancy; Serena Jane; and Eliza.

Seaborn J. and his sister, Ailsa D., and their families were known to have resided in Marion and Talbot counties, Georgia. Seaborn and his wife, Sarah Pattillo, migrated to Columbia Co., Ark. ca 1851, Caney township which later became a part of Nevada Co. They had nine girls and three boys, according to the census, and grandchildren with the surnames of Vestal and Wimberly. The 1880 census is the last record that I have of this family other than my direct ancestor. I would like death and burial information on the parents and any information on the other eleven children.

MONTGOMERY

Would like to correspond with anyone descended from the Montgomerys, who were around the Ouachita River area of Clark and Ouachita counties during the Civil War. My grandfather lived in northeastern Louisiana and he would board a river steamboat on the Ouachita River to go up river to visit 'Uncle Russell'. No information was ever heard of Uncle Russell after the War, yet he may have descendants living in the area.

PINSON

We have been searching for years for information on William A. Pinson and Ellen Susan Burgess. We have located them in the 1870 census of Washington Co., Mo., household no. 80. William is listed as 28 years of age, Ellen, 25, with son Charles F., 2. In household no. 78 was Joseph Pinson, age 81, with wife Mary, 61, and daughter Melyena, 18. In household no. 79 was John Pinson, 37, wife, Ellen, 35, and seven children.

The family story goes that Ellen died, we think in Mo., leaving two small boys, Thomas Henry, nicknamed Charles, and James Albert. About 1876 William moved to Mena, Ark. with the two sons, later married again. We have the 1880 census of Sebastian Co., Ark., where he is listed as age 35, with wife, Sarah, 27, and sons, Charles, 14, and James, 12, and a daughter, Phona, 2. We have been unable to locate a record of either marriage, or records of date and place of death and burial.

We have much information on Pinsons from Mo., Ala. and S. C. and would like to contact anyone with information on the Arkansas branch of this family.
